Rationale

ICRA has recently come to know that the interest to the tune of Rs.0.13 crore on Working Capital Demand Loan (WCDL) of Modenik Lifestyle Private Limited (MLPL), which was to be paid on the last day of the month as per the terms of the sanction letter, was charged by one of the banks on April 29, 2023 as the last date of the month fell on a Sunday. The same was paid by MLPL on the next working day, i.e. May 2, 2023. ICRA also understands that no penal interest was charged by the bank on the pending interest amount. As per information available, MLPL had at that time cash and bank balances of ~Rs.6.5 crore as well as a substantial headroom of ~Rs.124 crore in terms of undrawn working capital limits with its bankers, which was sufficient relative to the interest payment obligation.

In ICRA's assessment, looking at the facts, the above incident is on account of operational issues and does not reflect the financial inability or unwillingness of the company to meet its debt service obligations on time. Hence, the same has not been considered as a default by ICRA, in line with its Default Recognition Policy. ICRA has outstanding ratings of [ICRA]A+(Stable)/[ICRA]A1+ for the Rs. 250-crore bank facilities availed by the company. The ratings remain unchanged at [ICRA]A+(Stable)/[ICRA]A1+.
