Rationale

ICRA notes that in the FY2023 annual report of Ashirvad Pipes Private Limited's (APPL) auditor has given a qualified opinion on company's internal control system that could potentially result in misstatement in the financial statements with respect to accruals for customer rebates and schemes, approval of purchase orders and review of vendor invoices towards freight and logistics expense, among others. ICRA also notes that based on company's whistle blower mechanism framework, the company has received complaint, and there is a likely instance of fraud in relation to logistics and freight expense.

As per discussion with Management, ICRA understands the company has taken several corrective measures to strengthen its internal controls. The management is of the view that there are no further adjustments to be made to the financial statements other than those made in FY2023. Going forward, any adverse impact on company's profitability due to above highlighted challenges would remain a key rating sensitivity.

Complexity level of the rated instrument

Instrument	Complexity Indicator
Fund-based/Non-fund based	Simple
Unallocated	Not applicable

The Complexity Indicator refers to the ease with which the returns associated with the rated instrument could be estimated. It does not indicate the risk related to the timely payments on the instrument, which is rather indicated by the instrument's credit rating. It also does not indicate the complexity associated with analyzing an entity's financial, business, industry risks or complexity related to the structural, transactional, or legal aspects. Details on the complexity levels of the instruments, is available on ICRA's website: Click Here
